

“Safe Travels” from Wanderlust

Lyrics by Larry Dachslager

(Wanderlust is an original musical about a traveling carnival that makes annual stops in a midwestern town during the Great Depression. “Safe Travels” is a lullaby sung by a parent to a very young child drifting off to sleep.)

WHETHER YOU SOAR
WHETHER YOU SAIL
HIKING A MOUNTAIN OR RIDING A RAIL
WHETHER THE WEATHER IS CLOUDY OR CLEAR
WHATEVER THE COURSE THAT YOUR DREAMS CHOOSE TO STEER
REMEMBER TOMORROW I’LL ALWAYS BE HERE
I WISH YOU SAFE TRAVELS, MY LOVE

WHETHER BY AIR
WHETHER BY LAND
FEEL FREE TO VEER FROM THE PATH THAT YOU PLANNED
WHITHER YOU WANDER, MY BRAVE PIONEER
GATHER A FEATHER FOR MY SOUVENIR
AND REMEMBER TOMORROW I’LL ALWAYS BE HERE
I WISH YOU SAFE TRAVELS, MY LOVE

(bridge)

SKIMMING ACROSS LIKE A DOLPHIN
OR GLIDING ABOVE LIKE A DOVE
OR AMBLING ALONG LIKE A CINNAMON BEAR
AT SUNUP AT BREAKFAST, I’LL WANT YOU TO SHARE
YOUR TALES OF SAFE TRAVELS, MY LOVE
WHETHER BY FOOT
WHETHER YOU RIDE
YOU CAN GO ANYWHERE YOU SO DECIDE
ONE WAY OR OTHER, YOU’LL PLAY IT BY EAR
BUT WHETHER YOU’D RATHER GO FAR OR STAY NEAR
REMEMBER TOMORROW I’LL ALWAYS BE HERE

I WISH YOU SAFE TRAVELS,
SWEET DREAMS AND SAFE TRAVELS
I WISH YOU SAFE TRAVELS, MY LOVE
